

Doing Social Justice with Politically Diverse Communities Six Seminars in New York

Faith leaders, unions, advocacy groups, government officials, and interested citizens are invited to spend a day conversing together about doing social justice in congregations, city suburbs and rural areas which are politically very diverse. What are the possibilities of working together and how can we encourage others to do justice?

Come join us for an exciting day in six locations around New York: Click on a link below for complete details, date and location which is best for you.

January 23 Auburn and Central New York, First Presbyterian Church, Auburn, NY 10 to 3:30
Hosts: The Reverend James Moore and The Reverend Banu Moore, Moderators of Session

January 24, Little Falls \(Near Utica and Capital Region\), First Presbyterian Church, 10:00 to 3:30, Host: The Reverend Tamara Razzano, Pastor

February 6 Stony Brook \(Long Island\), Stony Brook University Student Activities Center, 100 Nicolls Rd. Stony Brook, NY 10:00 to 3:30

February 7 Brooklyn, Flatlands Reformed Church, 1:00 to 6:00 PM Host: The Reverend Paul Glover, Pastor

February 13 Buffalo, St. Paul's Cathedral (Episcopal) 139 Pearl Street 10:00 to 3:30, Host: The Very Rev. W. (Will) H. Mebane, Jr., Interim Dean

March 1 Potsdam, First Presbyterian Church, 10 to 3:30 Host: The Reverend Deborah Packard, Pastor

Sponsors of the seminars include: Broadway Presbyterian Church, Citizens Action, Fiscal Policy Institute, Interfaith Assembly on Homelessness and Housing, Interfaith Impact, New York State Association for Affordable Housing, New York State Council of Churches, Presbyterian Network to End Homelessness, Social Holiness Team, Strong Economy for All, Upper New York Conference, United Methodist Church, and others.

If you have questions, contact:

The Reverend Peter Cook

Executive Director, New York State Council of Churches

1580 Central Avenue, Albany, New York, 12205

Pcook@nyscoc.org, 508-380-8289